May 14, 1948 – Israel reborn

Isaiah 66: 7-11 – a nation comes forth
Ezekiel 37 – the Dry Bones

Five Arab armies (Egypt, Syria, Transjordan, Lebanon and Iraq) immediately invaded Israel. Their intentions were declared by Azzam Pasha, Secretary-General of the Arab League:
"It will be a war of annihilation. It will be a momentous massacre in history that will be talked about like the massacres of the Mongols or the Crusades."

May 14, 1948 – Israel reborn

Had the Jews lost the war, their territory would not have been handed over to the Palestinian Arabs. Rather, it would have been divided among the invading Arab forces, for the simple reason that none of the region's Arab regimes viewed Palestine as a distinct entity and most of them had their own designs on this territory.

The Covenant of the Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas)

18 August 1988

Preamble excerpt:

“Israel will exist and will continue to exist until Islam will obliterate it, just as it obliterated others before it”

(The Martyr, Imam Hassan al-Banna, of blessed memory).

Article Six:

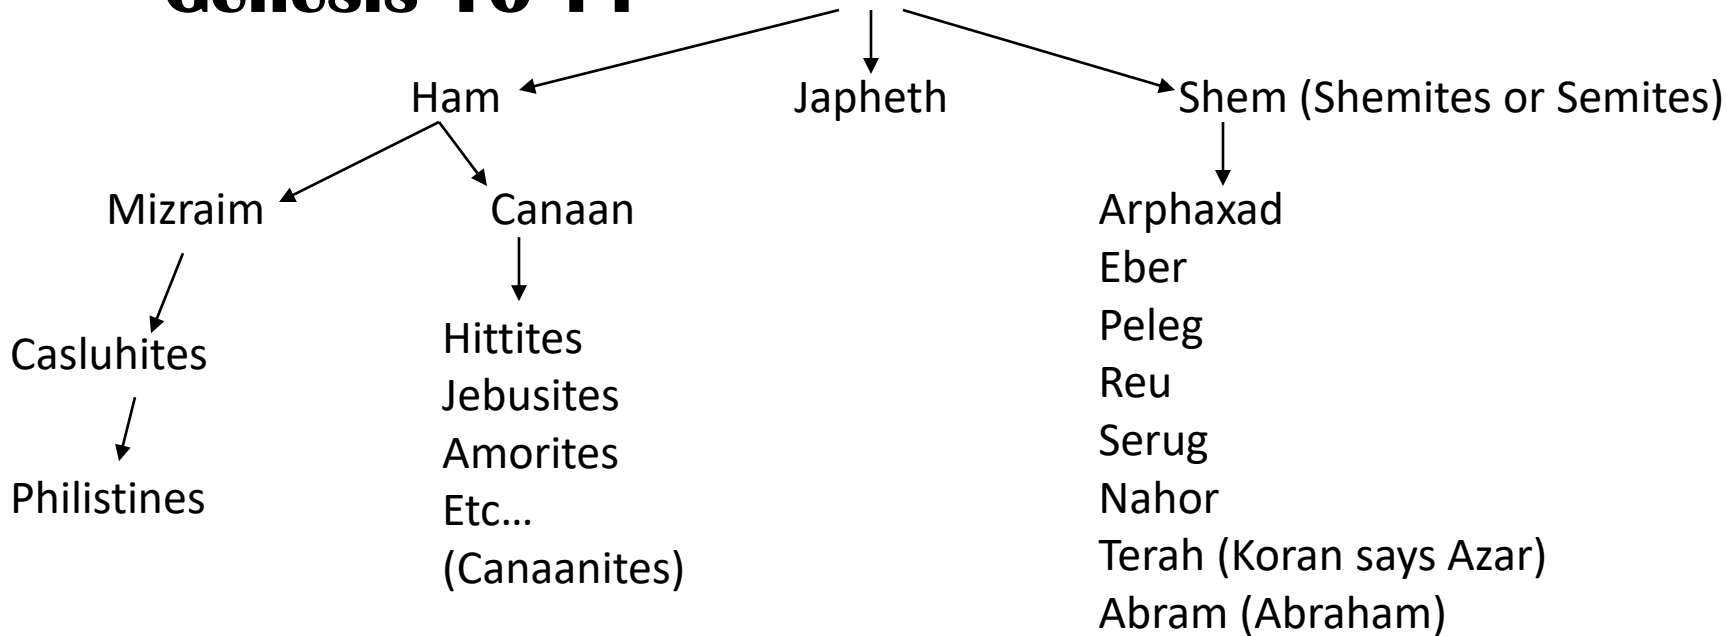

The Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas) is a distinguished Palestinian movement, whose allegiance is to Allah, and whose way of life is Islam. It strives to raise the banner of Allah over every inch of Palestine, for under the wing of Islam followers of all religions can coexist in security and safety where their lives, possessions and rights are concerned. In the absence of Islam, strife will be rife, oppression spreads, evil prevails and schisms and wars will break out.

PLO Charter - 1968

Article 20: Claims of historical or religious ties of Jews with Palestine are incompatible with the facts of history and the true conception of what constitutes statehood. Judaism, being a religion, is not an independent nationality. Nor do Jews constitute a single nation with an identity of its own; they are citizens of the states to which they belong.
