

Lift your eyes and look
to the heavens:
Who created all these?
He who brings out the
starry host one by one,
and calls them each
by name.
Because of his great power
and mighty strength,
not one of them is missing.

5 red heifers just shipped from Texas to Israel
Because of covid – no ear tags (no blemish)
Next summer – two years and one day old

The cows we are looking at now were conceived last year - last year was 5781 in the Hebrew calendar. In Hebrew numerology, this is an acronym for "it will be the year of the red heifer"

This year is 5782 - an acronym for "It will be a year for the heifer in Israel"

In one week we will begin 5783, the year in which the ceremony of the Red Heifer will be performed.

This is an acronym for "It will be a year of the Red Heifer of redemption."

From the time of Moses, who personally prepared the first heifer, until the destruction of the Temple, only nine red heifers were prepared.

Rabbi Moshe ben Maimon (Maimonides, c1200AD), the most renowned medieval Jewish scholar known by the acronym Rambam, wrote in his explanation of the mitzvah that “the tenth red heifer will be accomplished by the king, the Messiah; may he be revealed speedily, Amen, May it be God’s will.”

The background features a dark blue gradient on the left, transitioning into a complex, glowing blue structure on the right. This structure consists of numerous thin, parallel lines that curve and spiral inward, creating a sense of depth and movement, similar to a tunnel or a vortex. The lines are more densely packed and brighter in the center of the curve, fading towards the edges.

Rosh Hashanah (Feast of Trumpets) – Sunday, September 25 (5783)

Yom Kippur – Tuesday, October 4

Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles) – Sunday, October 9

Shemini Atzeret/Simchat Torah – Sunday-Monday, October 16-17

Days before the Jewish high holy days of Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, Hamas, the terrorist organization that runs Gaza, vowed a “religious war” against Israel over what it called “violations against Jerusalem and the Al-Aqsa Mosque”.

The Islamist ire is over the rise in Jewish visits to Judaism’s holiest site.

Speaking at a press conference in Gaza’s Omari Mosque,

Mahmud Zahar, a senior member of Hamas, warned

“the continuation of the Zionist aggression and their brutality against Jerusalem and the holy shrines will be the cause of a major battle.”

God has never learned and cannot learn

He knows instantly and with a fullness of perfection that includes every possible item of knowledge concerning everything that exists or could have existed anywhere in the universe at any time in the past or that may exist in the centuries or the ages yet unborn

Because God knows all things perfectly, He knows no thing better than any other thing, but all things equally as well. He is never surprised, never amazed.

God, therefore, knows no more now than he did before; and at the end of the world, he shall know no more than he doth now; and from eternity, he knows no less than he doth now, and shall do to eternity.

All the knowledge in any creature is from God. And you must allow God a greater and more perfect knowledge than any creature hath, yea, than all creatures have. All the drops of knowledge any creature hath, come from God; and all the knowledge in every creature, that ever was, is, or shall be, in the whole mass, was derived from him.

The 5 Points of Calvinism

John Calvin – 1509-1564

Total Depravity

Sin controls every part of man. He is spiritually dead and blind, and unable to obey, believe, or repent. He continually sins, for his nature is completely evil.

The 5 Points of Arminianism

Jacobus Arminius – 1560-1609

Free Will

Sin does not control man's will. He is sick and near-sighted, but still able to obey, believe and repent. He does not continually sin, for his nature is not completely evil.

Calvinism

Unconditional Election

God chose the elect solely on the basis of His free grace, not anything in them. He has a special love for the elect. God left the rest to be damned for their sins.

Arminianism

Conditional Election

God chose the elect on the basis of their foreseen faith. He loves all men equally. God passed over no one, but gives everyone an equal chance to be saved.

Calvinism

Limited Atonement

Christ died especially for the elect, and paid a definite price for them that guaranteed their salvation.

Arminianism

Universal Atonement

Christ died equally for all men, and paid a provisional price that made salvation possible for all but guaranteed it for none.

Calvinism

Irresistible Grace

Saving grace is irresistible, for the Holy Spirit is invincible and intervenes in man's heart. He sovereignly gives the new birth, faith and repentance to the elect.

Arminianism

Resistible Grace

Saving grace is resistible, for God does not overrule man's free will. Man is born again after he believes, for faith and repentance are not gifts of God.

Calvinism

Perseverance of the Saints

God preserves all the elect and causes them to persevere in faith and obedience to the end. None are continually back-slidden or finally lost.

Arminianism

Falling from Grace

Only a few Christians continue in faith and obedience to the end (Arminians are divided over whether one can actually lose his salvation).

Open Theology/Theism

The argument of open theism is essentially this:
human beings are truly free; if God absolutely knew the future,
human beings could not truly be free.

Therefore, God does not know absolutely everything about the future.

Open theism holds that the future is not knowable.
Therefore, God knows everything that can be known,
but He does not know the future.

For example, nearly half of Evangelicals agreed that God “learns and adapts” to different circumstances, in stark contrast to the biblical doctrine of unchanging nature, or immutability.

The Bible affirms the truth that the triune God is both omniscient, and immutable, meaning that He cannot and does not change. Despite the clear teaching of Scripture, this year’s survey reveals that approximately half of evangelicals believe that God learns and adapts to various situations, meaning that they believe that God does change.

O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.

Where can I go from your Spirit?

Where can I flee from your presence?

For you created my inmost being;

you knit me together in my mother's womb.

All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me

Psalm 139

For God so loved the world...
Whoever believes in Him... John 3:16

...God our Savior, who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. I Timothy 2:4

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise,
as some understand slowness.

He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish,
but everyone to come to repentance.

Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. Romans 11:25

And even if our gospel is veiled,
it is veiled to those who are perishing.

so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ

II Corinthians 4:1-4

[God] answered, "For the sake of ten [righteous men],
I will not destroy it."

for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure

Genesis 15:16

And even if our gospel is veiled,
it is veiled to those who are perishing.

The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers,
so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ

II Corinthians 4:1-4

...evil that deceives those who are perishing.
They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth
but have delighted in wickedness.

II Thessalonians 2:1-12

For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way.

II Thessalonians 2:1-12

Exchanged the truth of God for a lie

They did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God

God gave them over...
