

Päivi Räsänen

member of the Finnish Parliament since 1995
(re-elected April 2023)

former Minister of the Interior

former chair of the Christian Democrats medical doctor, mother of five and grandmother of six member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Finland

Wrote pamphlet for her church over 15 years ago, questioning their support for a gay pride event

Authorities concluded NO criminal action

2 years ago, charged with hate speech for the pamphlet & posting a pic of Romans 1:26-27

And Genesis 1:27

Acquitted March 2022

Appeal filed – now appearing in court again (Sept 2023)

The prosecution kicked off the proceedings with arguments against the defendants, focusing on a booklet written by Räsänen nearly two decades ago and stating that the content was "insulting" and violated "sexual rights."

The prosecutor argued that the use of the word "sin" in Räsänen's booklet was "degrading" and that her interpretation of Bible verses was "criminal."

"The point isn't whether it is true or not but that it is insulting," the prosecutor stated, according to ADF International.

"We can limit freedom of expression in the outward expression of religion," the prosecution added. "You can cite the Bible, but it is Räsänen's interpretation and opinion about the Bible verses that are criminal."

Member of Parliament Päivi Räsänen – a 62-year-old medical doctor and grandmother of seven – and Lutheran Bishop Juhana Pohjola were again found not guilty of hate speech by a court of appeals in Helsinki.

Prosecutors may still attempt to take the issue even higher up the system to the Supreme Court of Finland for a third and final decision.

“Bethlehem Municipality crews announced the dismantling of Christmas decorations installed several years ago in the city's neighborhoods and removing all festive appearances in honor of the martyrs and in solidarity with our people in Gaza,” the municipality wrote Tuesday on Facebook.

"Therefore, it is not appropriate at all to have such festivities while there is a massacre happening in Gaza and attacks in the West Bank,"
the spokesman said.

Gog and Magog – 2023?

Ezekiel 38 & 39

Prophecy to these bones and say to them,

'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!'

This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones:
I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life.

Then he said to me:

"Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel.
